

“I’m not doing all this just for fun. We’re trying to have some real impact on the world. I have lots of options right now. I could go into politics or business or law, but I’m really interested in using my skills to help people. I’m thinking about getting involved in something like the Peace Corps or something similar. I’m not sure exactly what I want to do, but I’m definitely going to make a difference in the world.”

“PAF is a great way to make a difference. You can help people from all over the world. You can also learn a lot about different cultures and ways of life. It’s a great way to broaden your horizons and gain new experiences. You’ll meet lots of interesting people and make new friends. You’ll also help others and make a real difference in their lives. It’s a great way to give back to society and make a positive impact on the world.”
