

June 2024

When the University of South Florida was invited to join the Association of American Universities (AAU) — an organization of the leading 71 public and private research institutions in North America — it was the culmination of a decades-long goal.

Our university has started a bold, new chapter where we leverage our strengths for everyone's benefit. Our Be Bold campaign aims to inspire our community, wherever they are in the world, to envision ways we can come together to benefit society and our planet.

In May, we celebrated our bold international students with the much-beloved sash ceremony tradition. We are especially proud of
